

Brainstorming for Partners

If you have difficulty coming up with 200-300 names for your mailing list, use these categories of friends and acquaintances on the following pages to stimulate your thinking. Many acquaintances might fall under several categories.

This is key →

Don't ask, "who will support me?" Only God knows that. Ask instead, "who should hear about my ministry?"

Acquaintances from church

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Acquaintances from your Sunday class or Bible study

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Believers you have met

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Coworkers/business associates

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Neighbors or former neighbors

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Friends from former residences, churches, or jobs

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Friends from college or national service days

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Relatives and family friends

_____	_____	_____
-------	-------	-------

Friends from “back home” (where you grew up)

Friends from athletic/social/service organizations

People you’ve ministered to

Your teachers . . . doctor . . . dentist . . . builder . . . insurance contact . . . printer . . . banker . . .
auto repair guy . . . house repair guys . . .

Even if you don’t have the address,
put the name down anyway. You can get others to help track down an address. That “missing” person may be the one who needs the ministry you can give.

